DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL SOCIETY

A Legacy of Excellence in Education

The Delhi Public School Society, established in 1949, stands as one of India's most respected non-profit school networks, founded on the guiding motto "Service Before Self." From its inception at DPS Mathura Road, New Delhi, the Society has expanded to a family of over 220 schools across India and abroad, delivering academic excellence blended with holistic development.

DPS schools are synonymous with strong academic outcomes, multidisciplinary learning, and exceptional co-curricular participation. The network nurtures a culture of leadership, creativity, and compassion through its emphasis on play-based and experiential learning in the early years, and a rigorous yet engaging academic environment in the senior classes. Each school fosters opportunities for students to explore sports, arts, community service, and digital literacy, ensuring well-rounded growth.

The DPS Legacy:

- Established legacy and proven academic track record.
- Diverse subjects and streams across Science, Commerce, and Humanities.
- Opportunities for sports participation at district, state, and national levels.
- Vibrant alumni network and pathways to premier universities worldwide.

DPS Society continues to redefine excellence in school education - nurturing citizens of tomorrow who think critically, act ethically, and lead responsibly.
